Release From Liability

School Year _____

I, the undersigned, hereby grant my child (student's name) _____ permission to participate in any La Progresiva Presbyterian School sponsored field trips, athletic teams, sporting events, and other school related activities during the school year for which I have personally granted permission by signing a permission form for that particular event.

By my signature to this statement of permission, I hereby release and hold harmless the above named school and the individual sponsors, including teachers, administrators, and parents from liability, mishap or injury to the student named herein from the time of departure to the time of return. I do not hold them responsible for the loss of personal items.

In the event my child becomes ill or injured while under the school supervision, I give permission for the school authorities to seek medical or surgical services for my child. It is understood that the best possible care will be given to the child.
